

Tea Party

ETIQUETTE TRUE OR FALSE

Decide whether these statements are true or false!

TRUE FALSE

- | | | |
|--|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. The host of the party pours everyone's tea. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 2. You should always sip your tea raising your pinkie finger. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 3. Your teaspoon should never go in your mouth. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 4. If your tea is too hot, blow on it to cool it down. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 5. Avoid clinking the spoon against your cup while you stir your tea. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 6. Break your scone into smaller pieces with your fingers. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 7. Swish your tea around your mouth each time you sip. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 8. You should pick up your teacup and saucer when sipping. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 9. The spout of the teapot should face the pourer. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 10. It is proper to dip your scone into your tea. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 11. It is considered rude to text during a tea party. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 12. Milk should be poured into the cup before the tea. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 13. After stirring your tea, place your teaspoon to the right of the saucer. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 14. Start at the top of a three-tier cake stand and eat your way down. | ☐ | ☐ |
| 15. Place your napkin on your chair to excuse yourself from the table. | ☐ | ☐ |

1. True - It is customary for the host to serve the tea.
2. False - Keep those pinkies down while you sip!
3. True - Your teaspoon is only for stirring not tasting
4. False - You should never blow on your tea but let it cool on its own.
5. True - You should quietly stir your tea
6. True - You should break off small pieces with your fingers. All food is finger food at a tea party.
7. False - Do not slurp, gulp, or swish your tea.
8. False - The saucer stays on the table unless you're standing.
9. True
10. False - It is considered impolite to dunk scones into your tea.
11. True - You should stay off of your phone during the tea party.
12. False - Tea should be poured first.
13. True - Do not leave your teaspoon in your cup.
14. False - start at the bottom and eat your way up.
15. False - place your napkin to the left of your place setting.

